The Significance of Reading

Expose Yourself to New Things

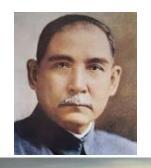

- Self Improvement
- How to build self-confidence, how to make the plan better before taking action, how to memorize things better and more.

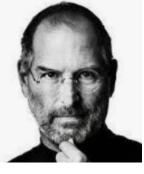

Gain Experience from Other People

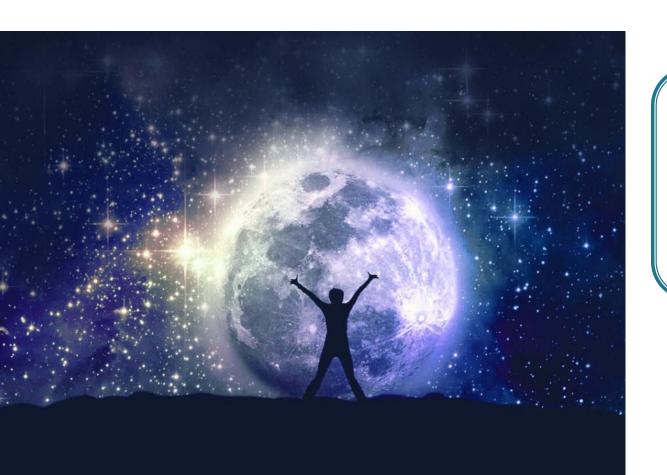

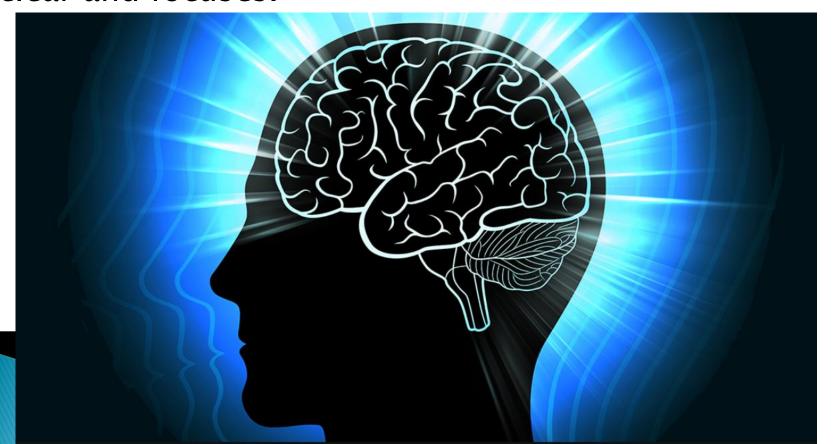

Tools of Communicating

Reading connects you with the world.

Connecting Your Brain In silence, you seek for more; in silence, your brain is clear and focuses.

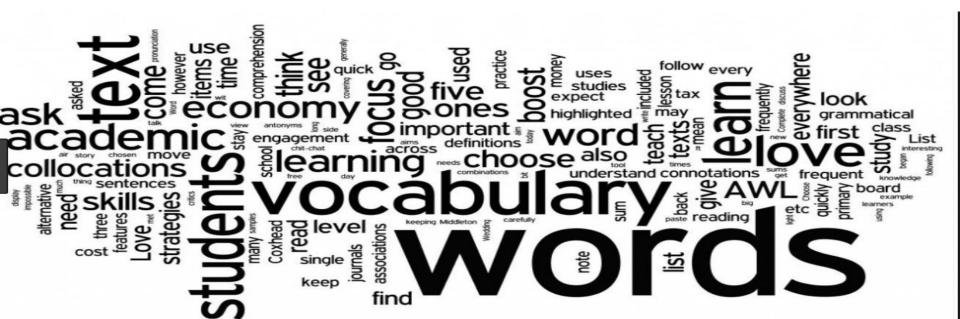

Boost Imagination and Creativity

By reading, you are exploring a different angle to see a thing you've known.

Students learn more vocabulary you need to encounter a word or phrase in different contexts between 15 and 20 times to have a high possibility of learning the word or phrase.

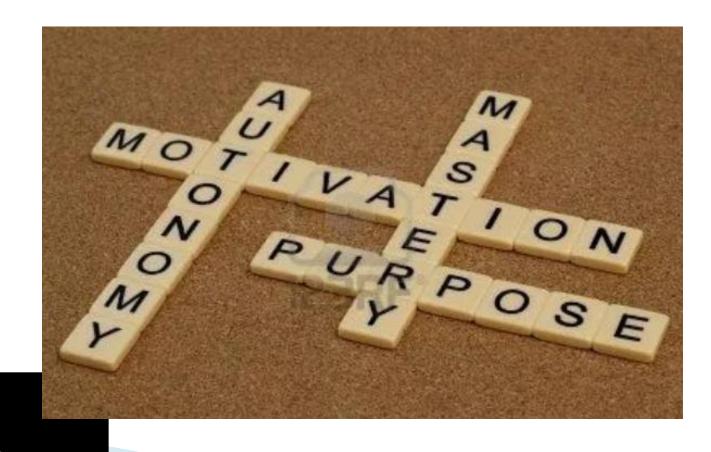

Students improve writing

Students improve overall language competence

Students develop learner autonomy.

Students become more empathic

Conclusion

There are many benefits of reading in language learning. These include gains in writing competence, oral and aural skills, vocabulary growth, and increases in motivation and empathy. Students who read extensively also become more autonomous learners.

